Sunday, April 19, 2020 Brandywine River Museum -- The year 2020 marks the 100th anniversary of the Nineteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which granted women the right to vote.

Votes for Women: A Visual History will include drawings, illustrations, and posters from museums, historical societies, and private collections that visualize the complex political messages conveyed by suffragists. Also included will be historic photographs.

Examples of the costumes, clothing, sashes, and other emblems of women's activism worn by suffragists will enliven the presentation. Also, Witness to History - Selma

Photos by Stephen Somerstein documenting the Civil Rights Movement. The art exhibits and tours to Wyeth's studios are also part of the days experiences.
